

Administering and Using the Learning Style Inventory Assessment Data

The Calhoun ISD recently created a learning style assessment in DataDirector. This assessment will allow educators to collect learning style data via an online assessment or answer sheet assessment. This data will allow educators to determine the receptive, social, and expressive learning style for individual students. In addition, educators will be able to aggregate this data to determine patterns and plan instruction accordingly. Finally, if educators choose to, individual student summary sheets can be produced with student specific information.

Using the Learning Style Inventory Mail Merge Word Document

If educators choose, they can take the summary data for each student and use the Learning Style Inventory Mail Merge Document to create a customized report for each student. To do this, save the Learning Style Inventory Summary Tool and open the Learning Style Inventory Mail Merge Document found here.

Click “No” when the window below appears.

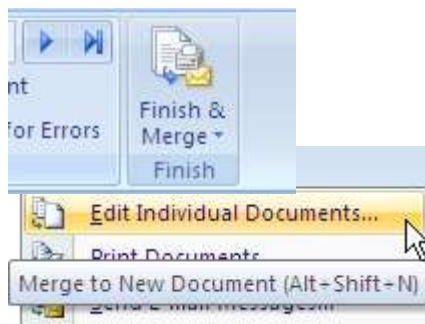

Next, users will need to point the Word document in the direction of the spreadsheet you recently saved. To do this, click the Mailings tab in Word, then Select Recipients, and finally choose Use Existing List.

Once you've identified the Excel sheet that Word will use, click ok.

Next, click Finish and Merge then click Edit Individual Documents.

Finally, click OK to view all student reports.
